THE HOWARD CASE

Supreme Court Grants Thirty Days Stay of Mandate

The United States Supreme Court yesterday granted the motion to stay the mandate in the James Howard case in the Geobel murder case.

The Court granted a stay for thirty days.

J. W. Blackburn of Washington made the motion in behalf of Howard's lawyer, W. M. Smith of Kentucky.

After the motion to stay the mandate had been made, the Court took a recess for ten minutes to deliberate on the motion and at the end of that time returned to the Courtroom and announced that the stay for the mandate had been granted and the mandate could not be served for thirty days.

The Court then adjourned.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Saturday evening Mrs. Jane Phister of West Third street entertained a number of her friends at tea.

In less than a week Mrs. Buckner Goodman's hospitable home has been the scene of two charming card parties. Thursday the Six-hand Euchre Club was delightfully entertained and yesterday thirty ladies responded to invitations sent out Friday.

The handsome drawing-room was effectively decorated with palms and ferns and soft lights cast their mellow radiance on the attractive scene.

Progressive euchre was the afternoon's pleasure and when the tallies were counted the fortunate recipients of the beautiful prizes were Mesdames Lizzie Wilson Power, Millard Mors and Miss Elizabeth Waller.

A delicious collation emphasized Mrs. Goodman's generous hospitality and marked another point in the success of a delightful function.

Declines a Call to a Wealthy Church in New York City

The Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, Pastor of the First Christian Church of Louisville, has received and declined a call to the Pastor to the First Church of Disciples, or the First Christian Church, of New York City, one of the wealthiest congregations of that denomination in the United States.

The call and the subsequent declination became known Sunday after a meeting of the Board of Officers of the Louisville Church at the close of the service, when Dr. Powell asked for a meeting of the officers and presented to them the facts in regard to the call.

They unanimously voted that it was their sense that Dr. Powell should continue his work in Kentucky, and the latter at once announced that he would decline the call.

Dr. Powell is one of the most popular Ministers who have made Louisville their field of labor, and is recognized as one of the ablest thinkers and most eloquent Preachers in his denomination.

THE report of Immigrant Inspector MARCUS BRAUN, which has been sent to Congress, is severe in its strictures on the Governments of Italy and Hungary. "Not a promise of the Hungarian Immigrant Law has been kept," Mr. BRAUN says. He asserts that $50,000,000 has been sent from the United States to Hungary by immigrants. According to the report Hungarians and Italians are encouraged to refrain from becoming American citizens.

REPRESENTATIVE McCALL of Massachusetts has introduced in the House a bill prepared by PERRY BELMONT of New York, providing for publicity of campaign receipts and expenditures. The bill provides that candidates for election at all National and Congressional elections shall furnish a sworn statement of their expenditures in regard to campaign receipts as well as expenses. The bill is drawn on the line of the Massachusetts law which was prepared by Mr. McCALL, who introduced the bill in the House. Senator PATTERSON of Colorado this week will introduce the bill in the Senate. Mr. BELMONT is in Washington, and will remain during the Winter to urge and help the passage of the bill through Congress. He has made the subject a study and is earnest and enthusiastic for the passage of the bill.

Vicroy Farms!

I have for sale the farm of 200 acres, known as the Higgins farm, located on the Germantown pike about 3 1/2 miles from Maysville. It has on it a frame house of 5 or 6 rooms, quarter of a mile from the pike. This farm adjoins William Marsh, Frank Chandler and the Kerr land. Tobacco barn that will hold 20,000 pounds of tobacco. Also a tenant-house, known as the Germantown Tollgate House. This house has 5 rooms. 30 acres can be cut off this main tract, which, together with the tollgate house, would make a very desirable small farm. Price $45 per acre for the entire farm.

Also a tract of 123 acres at Moransburg about 4 miles from Maysville. Has three tenant-houses, two good barns, a good orchard of about 1,000 trees of all kinds of fruit, fencing in fairly good condition, good water supply; 40 acres in grass. Price $55 per acre.

These places are rented for this year, but purchaser can take contract with tenants now held by the Vicroy estate.

I have a large list of Farms from which purchasers can make their selection. They are distributed over a number of counties and range in price from $10 per acre up to $150. Now is a splendid time to look at land, as it is free from snow and it is easy to determine the character of soil. There will be more farms change hands between now and March 1st, 1906, than have been sold in the previous ten months. Tobacco is selling at a fair price, and this year promises to be a record breaker for the farmer. If you have in mind a tract of land which is on my list, if you will give me a call I may be able to help you in securing it. I am devoting my entire time to and making a study of the Real Estate Business. Now is the time to buy Farms.

TOUR EUROPE FREE

The Courier-Journal To Take Nineteen Young Women Abroad As Its Guests

The Courier-Journal is conducting a popularity contest that eclipses anything of the kind ever promoted in this section. Briefly, The Courier-Journal proposes to take on a seven weeks' tour abroad nineteen young women from Kentucky and Southern Indiana, all expenses paid, from the day the party leaves Louisville, July 12th, until it returns to "The Old Kentucky Home," August 29th. To give all a chance The Courier-Journal has divided Louisville and Kentucky and Southern Indiana into eighteen districts, and the most popular young woman from each district is to be the one to make the tour. The nineteenth young woman is to be selected in another way. Readers of The Courier-Journal are to select the guests for the paper, by ballot. It is estimated that the trip alone will cost The Courier-Journal about $15,000, to say nothing of incidental and other necessary expenses. There may be a young woman from this section who is a candidate for this tour. Write The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky., for a list of candidates and full details of the tour.

frequently, items from my old home on Cabin its ever-defiant stand for a square deal. Whether the matter involves politics, religion or in-

THE LOUISVILLE WAY

Exposing the Honorable Aaron Kohn, a Lawyer of the Tom Campbell Type

Louisville Times.

"While I recovered the bonds myself, I feel that you should have the reward."—Extract from letter of Aaron Kohn to Chief of Detectives Maher and Detective Sexton.

On January 3d, at Shoals, Ind., Government bonds to the par value of $11,940 were stolen from the safe of J. P. Albaugh, a merchant of Shoals.

On January 10th, five suspects were arrested by Louisville detectives in a room over the saloon of Henry Bronger, in Sixth street, between Green and Jefferson.

On January 14th, Henry Bronger was arrested on the charge of having knowingly received stolen property.

On January 15th, Henry Bronger and his sons, Julius and Gus Bronger, were arrested on the charge of accessory to the fact before the charge of larceny.

On January 18th, one of the suspects arrested in Louisville made a confession involving four Louisville men. On the same day, Fabius Gwin, Attorney for J. P. Albaugh, called on Aaron Kohn.

On January 25th, Aaron Kohn appeared in the Police Court of Louisville as Attorney for Albaugh. He announced that his client had recovered the stolen bonds and moved that the Brongers be discharged. This was done. On the same day, Mr. Kohn sent his personal check for $1,000 to the Detective Department in a communication addressed to Chief of Detectives Maher and Detective Sexton, in which he said, "I recovered the bonds myself."

On January 26th, Mr. J. P. Albaugh testified at Shoals that he had recovered the bonds and, at the suggestion of Aaron Kohn, had doubled the reward, making it $2,000, for the recovery, which he had sent to Kohn.

Section 1,361, of the Kentucky Statutes, declares:

"If an informer or prosecutor upon a penal statute or in any criminal prosecution shall compound the penalty, or agree, directly or indirectly, with any other person, or with any one charged or supposed to be guilty of an offense against the penal laws, in consideration of any money or other thing paid or to be paid, not to produce the requisite proof, or to withhold any witness or evidence in the prosecution, or not to appear as prosecutor or witness against such person, he shall be fined a sum not less than the penalty compounded or to be imposed upon the person compounded with if he were found guilty, or imprisoned for sixty days, or both; and if the prosecution compounded be for a felony, he shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding twelve months, or both."

The present Grand Jury will be in session until January 31st. The facts and the statute are plain. The Grand Jury has the power to act.

MR. KOHN AND SALOON LICENSES.

There are laws governing the revocation of saloon licenses. Which one of them gives to Mr. Aaron Kohn the right to decide that the license of a saloonkeeper may be revoked provided the license of his son shall be continued?
The testimony given as to the character of the saloon conducted by Gus Bronger shows repeated violation of the terms under which his license was granted. Mr. Kohn declares that he is entitled to continue violating the law provided his father, Henry Bronger, does not share in his illegal profits. Is Mr. Kohn to be the final arbiter as to the continuance or revocation of saloon licenses as well as the sole judge whether the Commonwealth shall compound a felony? These questions have more than an academic interest for the people of Louisville.

Sharpsburg citizens will vote February 20th on whether or not they shall have a graded school.

George Owens, an L. and N. switchman, was thrown under a moving freight in the yards at Paris Sunday and had his left arm cut off. He died a few hours after sustaining the injury.

For February, Collector Samuel J. Roberts has assigned Storekeepers J. S. Wallingford, H.
G. Holiday, Frank Harting, W. C. Slye and Gauger L. M. Gaffin to the H. E. Pogue Distillery; Preston D. Wells, Storekeeper-Gauger, to Poyntz Bros., and Oscar Grigsby, Storekeeper-Gauger, to J. H. Rogers & Co.

George is King of Greece. His grandson, Haakon VII, is King of Norway.

A strike embracing 150,000 men and involving the entire building industry of New York, is now being eagerly aimed at by the Structural Steel Workers of the city. Such a desperate step is necessary, they say, in order to preserve their waning organizations from complete ruin as a result of the strike in which they have been engaged for the past seven weeks.

EXCITING RUNAWAYS

They Come Two-at-a-Time, and Nobody Seriously Hurt

A trite and true saying—"man proposes and God disposes,"—was verified in a manner yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in the mishap and narrow escape of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Bunton.

These good people had planned an outing and were on their way for a two week's sojourn with friends at Mt. Olivet and Sand Hill.

While ascending the Lexington pike that winds and skirts the hills as you leave the city, drinking in the beauties of the picturesque and inspiring panorama spread before them, and no doubt talking of anticipated joys and pleasures of their vacation in the country, the scene suddenly changes and danger and injury of person is right upon them.

They had nearly reached the top of the hill when they saw coming towards them a runaway.

The horse was running at a frightful speed, kicking and plunging at every jump, and in passing collided with their buggy, careening it and throwing Rev. Bunton out.

Fortunately Mrs. Bunton retained her seat; the horse, however, turned and headed down the pike at a break-neck gait.

The nery woman did not lose her head, but held on to the one line which she retained and guided the animal in its mad flight the best she could.

It was finally stopped in the bend opposite Mr. Wadsworth's residence in West Third street.

The runaway that caused the trouble was a spirited and high-bred horse from the Stock Farm of L. T. Anderson, and was being exercised by Dr. Olds, the trainer of the stables.

Dr. Olds was thrown out, sustaining a broken arm, besides being bruised about the body; the rig was smashed up; the horse jumped a wire fence but escaped serious injury.

When Rev. Bunton lighted on the ground one of the vehicles passed over his shoulder, but his injury was slight.

The buggy in which Mrs. Bunton made her unwilling drive had one wheel caved in and a broken shaft.

It is safe to say the thrilling experience will not soon be forgotten by those concerned in it.

Mrs. Hainline, who is at present in Cincinnati, is reported not to be well. She is suffering from a gathering in the face.

Misses Tillis and Jessie Roberts, for some time located in Georgetown, will in ten days leave for Cheyenne, Wyo., where they will engage in the millinery business, both being expert milliners. Before departing for their new home they will spend several days at their old home, visiting their brother, Mr. Charles Roberts, and other relatives.

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS

Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Itching Unbearable—Cured by Cuticura in Thirty Days at Cost of $4.75.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Soap, six boxes Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticure Resolvent. I bathed with the Soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five years ago.

"The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh.
In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable.

"To sum it all up, I would not go through such another ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the State of Kansas. (signed) W. M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills, are sold throughout the world, Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.
